

Friday, November 12, 2010

Jonathan Laker — apology

ON 24 March we reported that BAA security officer Jonathan Laker had misused a body scanner at Heathrow and took a naked scan of a female colleague.

We now accept that this was untrue and comments attributed to him were incorrect.

Mr Laker issued legal proceedings which we have now resolved with the payment of damages. We apologise to him and to all involved for the upset and embarrassment caused.